

Wind Energy Development Impacts upon Wildlife in Missouri

One-day Training Workshop Sponsored by
The Missouri Chapter of The Wildlife Society

Friday, July 24, 2009

King City Legion Hall, King City, Missouri
10:00 am to 4:00pm, Lunch will be provided

Training Workshop to Include:

Activities:

- Tour of Wind Capital Group's Bluegrass Ridge Wind Farm

Presentations:

- Wind Energy Development Potential Impacts upon Bats by Lynn Robbins (Missouri State University)
- Wind Energy Development Potential Impacts upon Birds, especially Prairie Chickens by Brian Obermeyer (Kansas Nature Conservancy)
- Strategies for Reducing Wind Energy Development Impacts upon Wildlife by Jane Ledwin (US Fish and Wildlife Service)
- Alternative Types of Wind Turbines and Known Impacts upon Wildlife by Ivan Vining (MO Department of Conservation)

Workshop registration is free to paid members of the Missouri Chapter of The Wildlife Society. Non-member registration fee is $10 per person. To register for the workshop, please complete the bottom portion of this announcement and mail to:

Alan Leary
Treasurer, MO TWS
PO Box 270
Jefferson City, MO 65102

If possible, please mail your registration form by July 15 so we can determine the number of lunches needed for the workshop.

Name: _____

Address: _____

Email: _____

Phone: _____

include $10 fee if applicable